Summer Reading Program

for Kids & Adults

June 9-August 1, 2008

By Gwen Kistner, Youth Services Coordinator
& Donna Smith, Adult Programming Coordinator

Looking for something enriching and fun to do this summer? Patrons of all ages are invited to join our multicultural Summer Reading Program, "Whole Wide World @ My Library," which will run from June 9 to August 1 at all Palm Beach County Library System locations. Our program and special events will encourage you to read about and discover people and cultures from around the world.

How to participate:

Children:

Sign up at the Youth Services Desk and receive a listing of summer events, a passport reading log, a pencil, a McDonald's coupon, and an activity booklet. Complete 10 hours of reading to earn fun incentives.

Teens:

Sign up at the Youth Services Desk for our young adult "Reading Frenzy" and receive a reading log, a canvas book bag, a pencil, and a McDonald's coupon. Complete 16 hours of reading and "fish" for a cool prize in the "shark tank."

Adults:

Sign up at the Reference Desk and receive a passport reading log, a bookmark, and a coupon for a McDonald's ice cream. Read and/or listen to five books/audiobooks and receive something special for taking this reading journey with us.

Watch for Summer Reading Program Kick-Off Parties and other multicultural events at your library.
